

EXCEPTIONAL VOLUNTEER

This award celebrates the contributions residents have made through volunteering. Volunteers contribute to the vibrancy, diversity and strength of our community.

This award will be presented annually to exceptional volunteers whose contributions have made a significant impact within Mississippi Mills. Only contributions made through volunteerism will be recognized, but can be related to an individual's expertise from training, work experience or education.